The Steading Tullicro, By Camserney, Aberfeldy, Perthshire

Hens scatter as you approach this house behind the hamlet of Tullicro; it's a clever fusion of modern Scottish and Scandinavian design. Built of local Aberfeldy stone, Sarah Jane's home has splendid mountain and river views. Breakfast at the picture window, on fine local and organic food (seeded breads, raspberries, smoked salmon). The upstairs bedroom has a magnificent skylight for star-gazing; both rooms have the right balance of comfort and contemporary chic. Fine Scottish woollens, French linens, firm mattresses, thick towels in pristine shower rooms. Evenings in front of that wood-burner beckon.
